Congress of the United States
Washington, DC 20515

June 14, 2013

President Barack Obama
The White House
1600 Pennsylvania Ave NW
Washington, DC 20502-0001
Dear President Obama:

We write today asking you to restore the trust of the American public in the Office of the Attorney General and immediately remove Attorney General Eric Holder from office.

As the chief law enforcement officer of the U.S. Federal Government, the Attorney General is responsible for overseeing the enforcement of all federal laws. The Attorney General is also responsible for representing the United States in legal matters and generally provides advice and opinions to the President and to the heads of the executive departments.

Unfortunately, however, Attorney General Eric Holder has failed to uphold his important duties to the American public on numerous occasions.

Operation Fast and Furious, the Department of Justice's seizure of phone records of reporters within the Associated Press (AP) and Fox News, and the most recent report of the FBI's broad intrusion into Americans' phone records are just a few examples of the disturbing actions taken by the Department of Justice while under the direction of Eric Holder.

The Attorney General has either overseen a rogue agency, one that he cannot control, or directly played a role in allowing these unacceptable actions to take place.

In any case, under Eric Holder's leadership, the American public has lost confidence in Attorney General's ability to fulfill the responsibilities of his office.

As he serves at the pleasure of the President, you have the authority to remove him from office at any time.

Now is the time to remove the chief law enforcement officer of the United States in order to restore the much-needed trust of the American public. A government created by the will of the governed should not govern by fear and intimidation by those whom it
